"This is how it is with the kingdom of God; it is as if a man were to scatter seed on the land and would sleep and rise night and day and the seed would sprout and grow, he knows not how."

What is Spiritual Direction?

Spiritual direction is “help given by one Christian to another which enables that person to pay attention to God’s personal communication to him or her, to respond to this personally communicating God, to grow in intimacy with this God, and to live out the consequences of the relationship.” (William A. Barry and William J. Connolly, The Practice of Spiritual Direction)

Spiritual direction focuses on religious experience. It is concerned with a person’s actual experience of a relationship with God.

Spiritual direction is about a relationship. The religious experience is not isolated, nor does it consist of extraordinary events. It is what happens in an ongoing relationship between the person and God. Most often this is a relationship that is experienced in prayer.

Spiritual direction is a relationship that is going somewhere. God is leading the person to deeper faith and more generous service. The spiritual director asks not just “what is happening?” but “what is moving forward?”

The real spiritual director is God. God touches the human heart directly. The human spiritual director does not “direct” in the sense of giving advice and solving problems. Rather, the director helps a person respond to God’s invitation to a deeper relationship. Learn more by contacting:

Dear SKD Parishioners:

I am writing to express my deepest gratitude for your overwhelming support, prayers, and love during this incredibly difficult time for my family and me. The passing of my mother and brother has been a profound loss, and your presence and kindness have been a source of immense comfort and strength.

Your prayers, cards, gifts, and gestures of sympathy have touched my heart deeply and have reminded me of the boundless compassion and solidarity within this parish community. Your unwavering support has helped me navigate through the waves of grief, and I am deeply grateful for your thoughtfulness and generosity.

As your pastor, it is humbling to witness the love and support that you have extended to me and my family. Your prayers and words of encouragement have been a beacon of hope during this dark and challenging period, and they have reminded us of the power of faith and community in times of sorrow.

While the pain of losing my loved ones remains, I find solace in knowing that I am surrounded by such a caring and compassionate parish family. Your presence and support have been a source of strength, and I am profoundly grateful for each and every one of you.

Please continue to keep my family and me in your prayers as we navigate through this journey of grief and healing. Your continued support means more to us than words can express, and we are forever grateful for your love and kindness.

With heartfelt thanks and blessings,

-Father Ricky

Prayer for Safety In Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children.
The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude.

You are still the Master of land and sea.
We live in the shadow of a danger
over which we have no control:
the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant,
can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to You,
O loving Father.
Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time.

O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf,
so that spared from the calamities common to this area
and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen.

(Composed by Most Rev. Maurice Schexnayder (1895-1981), Second Bishop of Lafayette (1950-1973), following Hurricane Audrey in 1957)

June, the Month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus

Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is one of the most popular Catholic devotions. Although it was beloved in previous centuries, Jesus appeared to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque in 1673, showing her a vision of the now-famous image of His Sacred Heart, surrounded by flames. He said to her: "My Heart is so full of love for men that It can no longer contain the flames of Its burning love. I must discover to men the treasures of My Heart and save them from perdition." She was given the special mission to spread devotion to His Sacred Heart throughout the Church. Jesus gave St. Margaret Mary many promises associated with this devotion, and requested that a feast day in honor of His Sacred Heart be instituted on the Friday after the Octave of Corpus Christi. In 1856, the Feast of the Sacred Heart was spread to the Universal Church, and in 1899 Pope Leo XIII solemnly consecrated all mankind to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, calling it "the great act" of his pontificate.

Jesus said, "Let the children come to me, and do not prevent them; for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these." – Mt. 19: 14.

When we bring our children to Mass, we are bringing them (as well as ourselves) to Jesus, to His perfect Sacrifice offered to God the Father for the salvation of mankind. We are bringing them to Jesus – Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity.

We are bringing them to the fountain of grace flowing from His Paschal Mystery! Don't miss the grace!

God does not take a break from you! Dear Dad and Mom, remember to come to Mass with your children every weekend. Even when we have a break in our classes of Religious Education. Jesus is still waiting for you and your family in the Sunday Mass.
