What is Spiritual Direction?

Spiritual direction is “help given by one Christian to another which enables that person to pay attention to God’s personal communication to him or her, to respond to this personally communicating God, to grow in intimacy with this God, and to live out the consequences of the relationship.” (William A. Barry and William J. Connolly, The Practice of Spiritual Direction)

Spiritual direction focuses on religious experience. It is concerned with a person’s actual experience of a relationship with God.

Spiritual direction is about a relationship. The religious experience is not isolated, nor does it consist of extraordinary events. It is what happens in an ongoing relationship between the person and God. Most often this is a relationship that is experienced in prayer.

Spiritual direction is a relationship that is going somewhere. God is leading the person to deeper faith and more generous service. The spiritual director asks not just “what is happening?” but “what is moving forward?”

The real spiritual director is God. God touches the human heart directly. The human spiritual director does not “direct” in the sense of giving advice and solving problems. Rather, the director helps a person respond to God’s invitation to a deeper relationship. Learn more by contacting:

Adoration Chapel Sanctuary Lamp

Minnie Dyll

By Debbie Eppinger

The red Sanctuary Lamp by the tabernacle burns to remind us of the sacramental presence of Jesus Christ.

Saint Katharine Drexel, pray for us.

Dear Parishioners and Friends:

As we enter the sacred season of Advent, we are invited to prepare our hearts and souls for the coming of our Lord, Jesus Christ, at Christmas. This season of waiting is not merely a countdown to the festive day of His birth, but a time of deep spiritual renewal and reflection. It is an opportunity for us to grow in faith, hope, and love, and to open ourselves more fully to the presence of Christ in our lives.

The word Advent itself means "coming," and during this time, we are called to focus on three comings of Christ: His coming in history, when He was born in Bethlehem; His coming in mystery, as He comes to us each day in the sacraments and in our lives; and His final coming in glory, when He will return to judge the living and the dead.

To prepare ourselves to welcome Jesus anew, we are encouraged to examine our hearts and lives. Is there space for Him to be born in us this Christmas? Are we allowing His grace to transform us? Advent is a time to clear away the clutter of sin, distractions, and selfishness, so that we can make room for His peace, joy, and love.

I believe one of the most powerful ways to prepare for the Lord's coming is through the sacraments, especially the Eucharist and the sacrament of Reconciliation. In the Eucharist, we encounter Christ, body, blood, soul, and divinity. Each time we approach the altar, we are nourished and strengthened by His grace. This Advent, let us make a conscious effort to participate fully in the Mass, approaching the Eucharist with reverence and gratitude, allowing it to deepen our relationship with the Lord.

In a special way, Advent invites us to seek the healing grace of the sacrament of Reconciliation. As we reflect on our lives and prepare for the coming of Christ, we are reminded that His mercy is always available to us. Confession is not just about acknowledging our sins, but about receiving the forgiveness and healing that Christ offers. It is a beautiful opportunity to be reconciled to God and to one another, restoring our hearts and souls to a state of grace.

I encourage all of you to take time during this Advent season to participate in the sacrament of Reconciliation. Whether it's been a long time since your last confession or you go regularly, this sacrament of healing is a gift of great peace and grace. It allows us to prepare our hearts to welcome Christ into our lives more fully.

As we journey through Advent together, let us make the effort to be more intentional about prayer, repentance, and reconciliation, so that we may celebrate the birth of Jesus with hearts that are open, joyful, and renewed in His love.

May this Advent be a time of true transformation, as we prepare to meet the Lord who comes to us, not just in the manger, but in the depths of our hearts.

United in the holy Eucharist,

-Father Ricky

Advent is a time of Hopeful longing, Joyful expectation, Prayerful penance and Spiritual Preparation!

Advent

How good is good enough? Do you have to be perfect to get to heaven? In the second reading this Sunday, Paul seems to think so when he tells us to be “blameless in holiness” (1 Thess 3:13.) Now Paul never considered himself as perfect. But even with his weakness, Paul always did the best he could. So what should we strive for? Maybe we can take a hint from his phrase “strengthen your hearts.”

Think of athletes who try to do their best. A great ball player takes batting practice every day to improve his average. Good athletes are always looking for ways to improve themselves. They keep in shape so they can be stronger, faster, smarter. That same attitude is what Paul means by “strengthen your hearts.”

Advent is a good time to start. As we prepare to celebrate the coming of the Lord, we can get ourselves in spiritual shape. Spiritual reading can give us a stronger prayer life. But if our spiritual reading just makes us feel good, we may be wasting our time. Hopefully, it will lead us to try praying more often and more seriously. Likewise, we can read about volunteering to feed the poor, but making the commitment and doing it is what strengthens the heart. Then as the Gospel says, we may have “the strength...to stand before the Son of Man.” (Lk 21:36) Tom Schmidt

SIMBANG GABI 2024

The Filipino-American Association of Southwest Florida (FAASWF), a 501c(3) Corporation, cordially invites you to attend the SIMBANG GABI on December 15, 2024, Sunday, starting with a Mass at 4 pm at the Saint Katharine Drexel Catholic Church at 1922 SW 20th Ave, Cape Coral, FL 33991. The Mass will be followed by a Potluck Reception at the Parish Hall.

This SIMBANG GABI is a long-treasured Philippine Christmas tradition that was originally a series of ‘dawn masses’ for nine consecutive days before Christmas Day. Here in Cape Coral, we modified this tradition into only one day focused on the original objective of the celebration.

RESPECT LIFE

May the advent of the infant Jesus
bring expectant
mothers joy,
hope, and peace.

Pray: Our Father, 3 Hail Mary's, Glory be

Reflect

Each year during Advent, we prepare our hearts to celebrate the birth of Christ our Savior at Christmas. As we anticipate this joyful celebration, we recall the well-known journey of the Holy Family from Nazareth to Bethlehem. Far from home, poor, and in great need. Mary and Joseph find refuge in a simple stable. But this humble setting among the livestock soon welcomes the heavenly host of Angels and the Son of God Himself.

Today women in our own communities are pregnant, poor, perhaps without a home, and in great need. They may feel alone, scared and overwhelmed, not knowing where they can turn for help. Like the Holy Family, they are reliant on the kindness and service of others.

This Advent May the story of the First Christmas inspire us to reach out the mothers in need. May we proactively seek to offer loving support and encouragement as they prepare to welcome their children. May we help mothers experience the joy, hope, and peace brought by the infant Jesus.

“Rosary for Life”

“The power of the Rosary is beyond description,” said Venerable Fulton Sheen. It’s a potent, saint-making prayer. A spiritual weapon so powerful it has defeated armies and changed world history. It can resolve personal problems, rescue souls from eternal death, and conquer despair.

But so few of us make the most of its graces. Now is the perfect time to unlock the power of the Rosary and grow in holiness.

Please join us to pray the “Rosary for Life” on December 13, at 12:00 Noon in the Saint Katharine Drexel Chapel.
