What is Spiritual Direction?

Spiritual direction is “help given by one Christian to another which enables that person to pay attention to God’s personal communication to him or her, to respond to this personally communicating God, to grow in intimacy with this God, and to live out the consequences of the relationship.” (William A. Barry and William J. Connolly, The Practice of Spiritual Direction)

Spiritual direction focuses on religious experience. It is concerned with a person’s actual experience of a relationship with God.

Spiritual direction is about a relationship. The religious experience is not isolated, nor does it consist of extraordinary events. It is what happens in an ongoing relationship between the person and God. Most often this is a relationship that is experienced in prayer.

Spiritual direction is a relationship that is going somewhere. God is leading the person to deeper faith and more generous service. The spiritual director asks not just “what is happening?” but “what is moving forward?”

The real spiritual director is God. God touches the human heart directly. The human spiritual director does not “direct” in the sense of giving advice and solving problems. Rather, the director helps a person respond to God’s invitation to a deeper relationship. Learn more by contacting:

THE WORD IN OUR LIVES:

TRINITY SUNDAY: GETTING TO KNOW THE TRINITY

As if his own life, his teachings about God's love, his miracles, his death and resurrection were not enough, Jesus told us something about God that we never would have imagined: There are three Persons in one God. It is also something we cannot completely comprehend. So instead of trying to explain it, let's look at what it means for us believers.

One thing it shows is that God wants to be known by us. In ancient times, people would expect their gods to be mysterious and hidden. Many cultures thought that you could control a spirit or god if you knew its name. God sees us not as a threat, but as beloved children. Just as a couple falling in love wants to know everything about each other, so God wants to be known by those whom God loves. That leads to my second point.

The Trinity also shows us that "God is love" (1 John 4:16) because the three Persons are united in one God. God calls us to be united in love with God and with each other. Remember that God knows us perfectly and still loves us. Yet knowing our weaknesses and our sins does not hurt God's love for us. On the contrary, our weaknesses allow God to help us by forgiving sins, or inspiring someone to come to our assistance. We may not be able to grasp the full meaning of the Holy Trinity, but knowing that God shares this with faithful people helps us to love God even more.

—Tom Schmidt

INSPIRATION DAILY:

REVEALED MYSTERY

I loved driving dusty country backroads—they meant adventure. One such road led me to a modest home, where a sheepdog and a grey-habited sister welcomed me. That weekend with the Society of Our Lady of the Most Holy Trinity (SOLT) was filled with prayer, service, and peace. Though I wasn't called to join the community, God had brought me there for another reason.

During prayer, I was drawn in my imagination to a round, sunlit yurt. Surrounded by Mary's mantle, I found myself standing before the Holy Trinity—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—united as one radiant sphere. It was a moment of awe, mystery, and deep peace.

More than a decade later, I'm still unpacking that revelation. The Trinity is a mystery we only know through God's gift of revelation. I don't fully understand it, but I marvel that God gathered us to Himself under Mary's mantle.

Though I don't know why I received that vision, I treasure it. I long to dwell there with Him always. On this solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, I pray you too ask Mary to draw you under her mantle—to rest with God in the heart of that divine mystery.

—Melissa Lucca

SAINT OF THE WEEK: JUNE 19

SAINT ROMUALD (C. 951-1027)

“God so loved the world,” declares John 3:16. “Do not love the world,” warns 1 John 2:15. The “world” to love: this planet, entrusted to our stewardship, and its people, God’s children all. The “world” to flee: “sensual lust, enticement for the eyes, and a pretentious life” (1 John 2:16). Born in nobility, Romuald’s conversion followed the shock of witnessing his father murder an enemy. Renouncing his privileged world, Romuald sought God’s world in monastic life. Its winding turns and several dead ends make Romuald’s journey resonate with all who find life more maze than super-highway. Both the hermit’s solitary struggle and community life’s unique challenges shaped Romuald’s legacy: his vast Camaldolese Benedictine family of monks, nuns, and lay associates who, these thousand years later, from the mountain solitude of Camaldoli, Italy to an urban monastery in Berkeley, California—in Asia, Africa, South America, Europe—integrate Romuald’s experience into their witness of solitary prayer, communal charity and worship, and promotion of contemplative spirituality in this world that can so easily distract us from the God who loves it still.

CAPUCHIN MISSION TRIP 2025

DONATE CLOTHES OR SUPPORT THE TRIP

A group of teens from St. Katharine Drexel Parish will travel to Harlan, Kentucky, July 12–20 with Capuchin Friars from the Province of St. Mary. They'll join 66 missionaries to bring hope by repairing homes, running a children's Bible school, and distributing clothes and supplies in one of the poorest areas of our country.

To support this mission, the teens are collecting gently used clothing. Donations can be placed in the boxes in the narthex at the back of the church. These items will go directly to families in need, many of whom face difficult living conditions and have limited access to basic necessities. Every donation makes a difference!

You are invited to become a companion in this mission. Please pray for the safety and impact of the team, donate clothing, or consider making a small financial contribution to help cover travel and meal expenses. For more information or to offer support, contact Tom Riley at 845-541-6509 or triley8963@aol.com.
