What is Spiritual Direction?

Spiritual direction is “help given by one Christian to another which enables that person to pay attention to God’s personal communication to him or her, to respond to this personally communicating God, to grow in intimacy with this God, and to live out the consequences of the relationship.” (William A. Barry and William J. Connolly, The Practice of Spiritual Direction)

Spiritual direction focuses on religious experience. It is concerned with a person’s actual experience of a relationship with God.

Spiritual direction is about a relationship. The religious experience is not isolated, nor does it consist of extraordinary events. It is what happens in an ongoing relationship between the person and God. Most often this is a relationship that is experienced in prayer.

Spiritual direction is a relationship that is going somewhere. God is leading the person to deeper faith and more generous service. The spiritual director asks not just “what is happening?” but “what is moving forward?”

The real spiritual director is God. God touches the human heart directly. The human spiritual director does not “direct” in the sense of giving advice and solving problems. Rather, the director helps a person respond to God’s invitation to a deeper relationship. Learn more by contacting:

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

June 20, 2025

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This Sunday, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ; it is my prayer that you will always be strengthened and nourished by the Holy Eucharist.

The Peter's Pence Collection began as a way for Catholics around the world to express their unity with the Holy Father by supporting the Church's mission of evangelization and charity by giving to this annual collection. Funds collected will benefit our brothers and sisters who are victims of war, oppression, and disasters. By participating in this collection, you join Pope Leo XIV's efforts to show your support for the ongoing work of the Holy See and show kindness and mercy to those who suffer worldwide.

The Diocese of Venice is scheduled to hold the Peter's Pence Collection on the weekend of June 28 and 29, 2025. Please prayerfully consider supporting this year's collection as an act of charity and a sign of support for Pope Leo XIV. Join the Faithful from around the globe to ensure the Successor of Peter is able to respond to those most in need. Thank you for your generosity!

I take this opportunity to extend to you my continued consideration as well as my prayers for you and your family.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida

THE WORD IN OUR LIVES:

CORPUS CHRISTI: GIVE THEM SOME FOOD YOURSELVES

The Gospel for this feast reminds me of what my aunt used to tell us when we would visit her and share a meal. Her favorite saying was, “If you don’t get enough to eat, it’s your own fault.” Perhaps Jesus would say the same as he feeds us with his Body and Blood.

Some say that the multiplication of loaves was not done by breaking the laws of physics. Instead, they say that Jesus, when he began to share the little bread that he had, touched the hearts of all those who had brought food with them. They followed his example by sharing their food also—so much that there were twelve baskets left over.

Jesus came to change people’s hearts, to show them God’s love and how to love one another. The miracle of changing bread and wine into his Body and Blood is not just so we can feel good about having Jesus so near to us. It is meant to strengthen us to do our best as his disciples. As food and drink help us to keep on working, his Body and Blood help us to keep on loving.

When the disciples told Jesus about the hungry crowd, he told them, “Give them some food yourselves” (Luke 9:13). And one day they would. When they celebrated the Eucharist after Jesus’ resurrection, they gave that spiritual food to the new followers of Christ. We continue that today. With Jesus’ strength we can teach all people about the Father’s love for them and how they can love each other.

—Tom Schmidt

INSPIRATION DAILY:

MORE THAN ENOUGH

It surely couldn’t have seemed like enough—five loaves and two fish to feed thousands. I wonder if the Twelve ever questioned Jesus or if they had seen enough to know He truly was God. It’s one of the questions I hope to ask in Heaven.

My study Bible says this miracle foreshadows the Eucharist. I also see it as a call to trust that what Jesus gives is enough. When my husband lost his job, I prayed for a specific salary, hoping to contribute to upcoming church and seminary campaigns. His new job paid less than I’d asked for. Then one of the campaigns launched, and we were asked to give an amount that seemed beyond our reach. After praying, we decided to go for it—and somehow, it was enough. Jesus took our humble trust and multiplied it.

Feeding five thousand is no small task. I want to thank the Apostles for their faith—they were flawed, human, and still chose to trust.

As I live this life, I’m learning: Jesus sees the whole picture. I see only part. What He gives is not just enough—it’s more than enough. He is so good.

—Merridith Frediani

JUNE 27

MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS

Think of countless T-shirts and bumper stickers: “I (big red heart) a city/pet/candidate/whatever.” The heart is truly the universal symbol of love. Catholic tradition pictures Jesus’ heart as living token of redemptive love. The Gospels describe Jesus’ heart as “meek and humble” (Matthew 11:29), “full of compassion” (Matthew 9:36), a “fountain of living water” (John 7:37-39), of “blood [Eucharist] and water [Baptism]” (John 19:34), sacraments of the church’s birth, new Eve from new Adam’s side. The Sacred Heart devotion blossomed in the seventeenth century, countering an overemphasis on spiritual unworthiness and an increasing secular contempt for religion with loving affection for Jesus and encouragement of frequent Communion. The devotion’s “apostle” was the humble nun Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque (1647-90), who envisioned Jesus, pointing to his burning, wounded heart and lamenting the world’s indifference: “Behold the Heart that has loved people so and is loved so little in return!” This cherished Catholic devotion reminds us that, no matter how sophisticated the theology in our heads, discipleship is also, perhaps more so, a matter of the heart.
