What is Spiritual Direction?

Spiritual direction is “help given by one Christian to another which enables that person to pay attention to God’s personal communication to him or her, to respond to this personally communicating God, to grow in intimacy with this God, and to live out the consequences of the relationship.” (William A. Barry and William J. Connolly, The Practice of Spiritual Direction)

Spiritual direction focuses on religious experience. It is concerned with a person’s actual experience of a relationship with God.

Spiritual direction is about a relationship. The religious experience is not isolated, nor does it consist of extraordinary events. It is what happens in an ongoing relationship between the person and God. Most often this is a relationship that is experienced in prayer.

Spiritual direction is a relationship that is going somewhere. God is leading the person to deeper faith and more generous service. The spiritual director asks not just “what is happening?” but “what is moving forward?”

The real spiritual director is God. God touches the human heart directly. The human spiritual director does not “direct” in the sense of giving advice and solving problems. Rather, the director helps a person respond to God’s invitation to a deeper relationship. Learn more by contacting:

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

July 10, 2025

Dear Monsignor/Father,

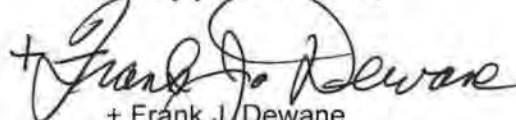

Greetings in the Lord, Jesus Christ. With this letter, I wish to address recent news concerning Churches and political endorsements.

As you are likely aware, the IRS recently issued an interpretation of the Johnson Amendment that would allow religious organizations to endorse candidates. Please know that the Church's stance on this matter has not changed, and there should be no endorsement of political candidates or of a particular party. On this matter, a statement from the USCCB may be found enclosed herewith.

Please know that this policy is not intended to be disrespectful of your individual political views. However, these views are your personal views, while that which is proclaimed from the pulpit and the altar cannot be solely the view of the Priest and must reflect the whole Church. While all are familiar with how sensitive and divisive these issues can be, the Priest is called to be pastoral to all. Your understanding and assistance in avoiding endorsements are appreciated, as are your efforts to form the consciences of the Faithful.

I take this opportunity to extend to you the assurances of my continued consideration, as well as my prayers for you and your ministry.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

 + Frank J. Dewane

 Venice in Florida

THE WORD IN OUR LIVES:

16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: THE BETTER PART

The Gospel for this Sunday can sometimes give the impression that Jesus favored Mary over Martha. But if they had both sat down to listen, there would have been no dinner to serve to Jesus. He saw that Mary was content to listen to him, so Martha could have been content to prepare the meal for him. Remember the first reading, in which Abraham insisted on serving the visitors, whom he came to recognize as the Lord and two angels. He was rewarded with the assurance that he would soon have a son.

So simple acts of hospitality can also be how people can welcome the Lord into their homes. When we welcome someone into our homes as a visitor, or into our lives as a friend, we are also welcoming Christ. When we get to know someone better, we are also getting to know Christ. And what about that “better part” that Mary had chosen? Are we sometimes like Martha, with too many things on our minds to be aware of the Lord? Sometimes we can’t avoid the distractions that are part of life. But if we keep the Lord on our minds we may be able to see which are distractions to be put aside, and which are opportunities to serve the Lord in a different way. As we spend more time with the Lord in prayer, we begin to experience God’s peace, which gives us the ability to choose the better part.

—Tom Schmidt

INSPIRATION DAILY:

PUT DOWN YOUR BUCKET

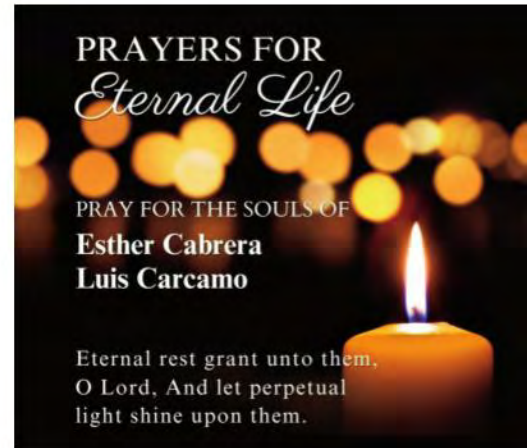

This Gospel passage can be intimidating to reflect on—so much has already been said. A favorite especially among women, it offers a glimpse into how we might prioritize our time.

As I reflected on it, I was reminded of a podcast I heard last year. The topic was different, but one phrase stuck with me: “If it’s raining, put down the bucket.” The story went like this: We are gardeners, tending to our lives. Water is essential, and we often carry buckets to nourish our sprouts. But if we become so focused on filling and carrying the bucket, we might miss when the rain begins to fall. When that happens, it’s time to stop—let the rain do its work.

Martha was a diligent gardener, tending to her guests. But she was so focused on her “bucket” that she missed the Living Water right in front of her. This perspective honors the work Martha was doing. Without effort, a garden withers. Our spiritual lives need tending too—through study, prayer, and service. But God is the master gardener, and sometimes we are called to stop, to be still, and simply dwell in His presence.

How do we know when to work and when to rest? Ecclesiastes reminds us there is a time for everything. Discernment, through prayer and reflection, helps us choose wisely. Martha chose well—but Mary chose better by putting down her bucket and listening fully to Jesus.

SAINT MARY MAGDALENE

Though her transgressions may have been many, just as abundant was her love for her Lord. Perhaps one of the greatest conversion stories of the New Testament, Mary Magdalene was one from whom seven demons had been expelled, a woman plagued by turmoil. She lived her own type of hell on earth, that is, until Jesus crossed her path one day. She first appears in the Bible accompanying him as he journeyed from one town to the other

“preaching and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God”. Her gratitude led her to follow and serve her Lord tirelessly, all the way up to the foot of the cross. She did not abandon him in the face of difficulty, nor did she deny him despite the harsh cruelty all around her. She was one of the few to accompany him, gazing upon his beaten and torn countenance as he took his final breath. Jesus rewarded this loving devotion as she is known in Mark’s account to be the first one to see him after the Resurrection (Mark 16:9). May we follow the example of Saint Mary Magdalene in our unwavering dedication to God, so that at the end of our days we may also declare, “I have seen the Lord!”
