What is Spiritual Direction?

Spiritual direction is “help given by one Christian to another which enables that person to pay attention to God’s personal communication to him or her, to respond to this personally communicating God, to grow in intimacy with this God, and to live out the consequences of the relationship.” (William A. Barry and William J. Connolly, The Practice of Spiritual Direction)

Spiritual direction focuses on religious experience. It is concerned with a person’s actual experience of a relationship with God.

Spiritual direction is about a relationship. The religious experience is not isolated, nor does it consist of extraordinary events. It is what happens in an ongoing relationship between the person and God. Most often this is a relationship that is experienced in prayer.

Spiritual direction is a relationship that is going somewhere. God is leading the person to deeper faith and more generous service. The spiritual director asks not just “what is happening?” but “what is moving forward?”

The real spiritual director is God. God touches the human heart directly. The human spiritual director does not “direct” in the sense of giving advice and solving problems. Rather, the director helps a person respond to God’s invitation to a deeper relationship. Learn more by contacting:

THE WORD IN OUR LIVES:

HOW MUCH?

How much is good enough? How do we know when we've been generous or faithful enough to please the Lord—or done enough to avoid sin?

While God isn't tallying our every deed on a scoreboard, Scripture reminds us that we will face judgment. Today's second reading challenges us: "In your struggle against sin, you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding blood."

So, how do we respond when we sin? Do we give in so often that our conscience barely stirs? Do we immediately regret it and seek forgiveness? Do we rush to confession—or let sins pile up until the burden becomes unbearable?

Jesus revealed to St. Faustina the deep pain sin causes His Sacred Heart. If we truly believed this, sin would repulse us. In the Divine Mercy Novena, He pleads: "Bring to me all mankind, especially sinners, and immerse them in the ocean of My mercy. In this way you will console Me in the bitter grief into which the loss of souls plunges Me" (Diary of St. Faustina).

Let us take these words to heart. Turn away from sin, and instead become people of love, joy, and truth. Let us set the world ablaze with the fire of God's love! (see today's Gospel).

—Tami Urcia

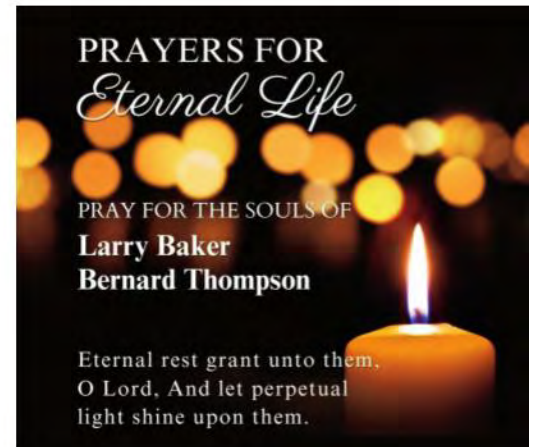

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION:

GOD WRITES STRAIGHT WITH CROOKED LINES

Long ago, signet rings were essential to the wardrobe of influential people. Letters and documents were sealed with hot wax, into which a signet ring was pressed to confirm authenticity. For popes, beginning in the 13th century, public documents were sealed not with wax but with hot lead. These lead seals were called bullae, giving rise to the term "papal bulls."

Given its importance, the signet ring became part of a pope's inauguration. Known as the Pescatorio, or "Ring of the Fisherman," it symbolizes the pope's link to St. Peter and his role in continuing the apostolic mission of "fishing for human beings." Until 1842, it functioned as an actual signet. Today, each new pope receives a custom gold ring bearing a design of St. Peter fishing and the pope's Latin name. It is worn on the fourth finger of the right hand. A tradition that still continues is for people meeting the pope to kiss the Pescatorio in respect for his teaching authority—a custom that no longer applies to bishops. Another lasting ritual is the destruction of the ring upon the pope's death. Originally intended to prevent forgeries of final documents, this symbolic act still marks the end of a papal ministry.

—James Field

Saint Pius X

AUGUST 21

SAINT PIUS X (1835-1914)

Presidential vetoes we understand. But imagine vetoing a papal election! Yet in the conclave of 1903, the Archbishop of Cracow (ironically, a predecessor in that office of Karol Wojtyla, the future John Paul II) vetoed the leading candidate on the order of the Austro-Hungarian emperor. Instead, the cardinals elected Giuseppe Sarto of Venice as Pius X, the first pope, after a succession of nobles and diplomats, to hail from humble origins. Nor did the papacy alter his endearing simplicity. Tailors eventually made his cassock cuffs detachable because he absentmindedly wiped his fountain pen on them, forgetting that his old black cassock had been replaced by papal white! Taking as his motto "To restore all things in Christ" (Ephesians 1:10), Pius condemned the theological innovations called "modernism," yet dramatically altered the then-common practice whereby people rarely received Communion for fear of unworthiness, mandating early First Communion and urging everyone to frequent reception. Refusing to bless troops assembled in Saint Peter's Square—"I bless peace, not war!"—he died brokenhearted as World War I engulfed "Christian" Europe despite his peacemaking efforts.
