POPE'S MONTHLY PRAYER INTENTION

DECEMBER 2025

FOR CHRISTIANS IN AREAS OF CONFLICT

Let us pray that Christians living in areas of war or conflict, especially in the Middle East, might be seeds of peace, reconciliation, and hope.

Dear Saint Katharine Drexel Families,

As we celebrate the joyful season of Christmas and prepare to welcome the New Year, I greet you in the name of Jesus Christ, the Light of the World. During these holy days, we rejoice in the gift of our Savior's birth and give thanks for God's enduring love made visible in the Incarnation. Christmas invites us to pause with grateful hearts and marvel at the grace God has poured out upon us through His Son.

The prophet Isaiah proclaimed, "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light." This promise is fulfilled in Jesus Christ, whose birth brings hope, peace, and new life to the world. We celebrate not only the birth of a child in Bethlehem, but the coming of our Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, and Prince of Peace. Christ is the light that continues to shine into every darkness, guiding us as we move forward into a new year.

Saint Paul reminds us in his letter to Titus, "For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all." The Christmas mystery reveals God's grace at work among us—redeeming, renewing, and calling us to live lives rooted in faith and love. As we begin a new year, we do so with hope, trusting that Christ walks with us and strengthens us through His grace as we await the fulfillment of His promises.

In the Gospel of Luke, we are drawn once again to the humble manger in Bethlehem, where angels proclaim to the shepherds, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news of great joy for all the people." This good news remains as powerful today as it was on that holy night. God is with us—Emmanuel—offering peace, joy, and new beginnings to all who welcome Him.

As you celebrate Christmas and look ahead to the New Year, may your hearts be filled with the peace of Christ and the joy of His presence. May the hope born in Bethlehem guide you in the days ahead, and may God's grace sustain you and your families throughout the coming year. On behalf of the parish staff and myself, I wish you and your loved ones a blessed Christmas and a happy, healthy, and grace-filled New Year. May the peace of Christ be with you now and always.

United in the Holy Eucharist,

Father Ricky Varner

Merry Christmas
